

Sponsor Opportunities

Harriett Tubman, 1822-1913, was born into slavery but escaped and made some 13 missions to rescue some 70 enslaved families and friends. Using the Underground Railroad network. She will replace Andrew Jackson on the face of the $20 bill in the year 2020.

$1,000

The Harriett Tubman Package

- Title sponsorship of the conference logo
- Sponsor logo will appear with the conference logo in all flyers, advertisements, and promotional efforts*
- Banner at the event
- Full page ad in the event program
- Materials in participant bag
- Passes for a table of eight at the event
- Autographed copy of author's book

$500

The Madame C. J. Walker Package

- Sponsor promotion with flyers, advertisements and online presence
- Half page ad in the event program
- Materials in participant bag
- 4 passes to the event

Madame C.J. Walker, 1867-1919, is eulogized as the first female self-made millionaire in America. She became one of the wealthiest African American women in the country by developing and marketing a line of beauty and hair products for black women through the successful business she founded.

$250

The Alice Paul Package

- Business card ad in the event program
- Materials in participant bag
- Two free passes to the event

Alice Paul, 1885-1977, was the main leader and strategist behind the Nineteenth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution which prohibits sex discrimination in the right to vote. She spent a half century as leading the National Woman's Party, which fought for her Equal Rights Amendment.

$100

The Susan B Anthony Package

- Listing in the event program
- Materials in participant bag
- One free pass to the event

Susan B. Anthony, 1820-1906, was a feminist who spent more than 50 years fighting for women's rights. The Rochester native arranged to present Congress with an amendment giving women the right to vote. She became the first non-fictional woman to be depicted on U.S. coinage when she appeared on the 1979 dollar coin.

Any net proceeds will support education in the community by the CCE-Steuben financial program.
Contributions to CCE-Steuben are tax exempt under the 501 (c) 3 organization laws.